GLADSTONE CAMP MEETING
JULY 14-18, 2026

Dear Camp Meeting Saints,

In my Bible reading, I am about to start back through the "psalms of ascent" in Psalms 120-134. I know I'll find passages that celebrate the wonder of gathering to praise and worship the Lord. And I know they will remind me of . . . camp meeting:

"I was glad when they said to me, 'Let us go into the house of the Lord'" (Ps. 122:1, NKJV)

"Let us go into His tabernacle; Let us worship at His footstool." (Ps. 132:7, NKJV)

I welcome you to Gladstone Park for Gladstone Camp Meeting 2026. Over the past year, the Lord has been good to us individually and corporately. It is good to be back together and join in thanking Him.

Many staff members and volunteers have been involved in preparing Gladstone Park for us. Others have worked hard to plan an enriching variety of worship events, seminars, and programming for all ages that will strengthen our commitment to look with hope toward the Second Coming of Jesus.

This year, much of what we will share is inspired by something created 500 years ago—William Tyndale's English New Testament. Our theme, "The Word for All People," looks back to Tyndale for inspiration to spread the good news about God's plans for our world.

Thank you for singing songs of joy, celebration, and ascent as we gather to worship the Lord!

John McVay, Oregon Conference president

7:00PM - 9:00PM

THE WORD MADE FLESH, MADE PLAIN

Andreas Beccai
Gladstone Pavilion

Incarnation is translation. When God became human, he rendered himself accessible in the only language we truly understand, a life. Tyndale's dream was ordinary people hearing God speak their language. We will learn what it means to receive, and embody, a Word that keeps becoming flesh.

Tonight's Offering

Innovative Approaches to Evangelism – Creativity is at the heart of connecting with people in today's world. Across the Oregon Conference, churches are stepping out with fresh, inspired ideas—from shoe drives and back-to-school bashes to welding classes and other hands-on ministries. These unique efforts are modern-day expressions of Christ's love, meeting real needs in real ways. When you give to Oregon Conference Evangelism, you're equipping churches to dream big and serve boldly. Thank you for helping make ministry both meaningful and memorable! Give during the offering this evening using the remittance envelopes in the Pavilion or online using the Adventist Giving app or at orad.us/ORGiving.

WEDNESDAY MORNING GATHERINGS

7:00AM - 8:00AM - DEVOTIONAL TIME

DEVOTED: INTENTIONAL IDENTITY

Billy Hungate
Mt. Hood Auditorium – Holden Convention Center

Who are we becoming? In a world that constantly tries to define us by achievement, failure, image, or performance, we will explore what it means to root our identity in Christ. Together we'll rediscover the freedom of living from who God says we are rather than striving to prove ourselves.

9:00AM - 10:00AM - BIBLE STUDY

TEXT AND SPECULATION: READING REVELATION RESPONSIBLY

Brant Berglin
Mt. Hood Auditorium –
Holden Convention Center

Revelation has been vital to Adventist identity since our formation as a distinct people. Today, many read Revelation's prophecies and apply them to each new major world event, movement, war, or disaster. Is there a way to ensure our application of Revelation is careful, responsible, and accurate? This seminar explores tools from the text itself that guide us in aligning interpretation and application with world events.

John McVay
Mt Hood Auditorium –
Holden Convention Center

LOUD CRY READY? – PART 1

George Gainer
Cascade Room B/C –
Holden Convention Center

VOD In case you hadn't noticed, we are living in a 24-hour news cycle of "wars and rumors of wars — nation rising against nation — earthquakes — famines — pestilences." Can it be that the time of test is just upon us? The loud cry of the 3rd angel has already begun. It began in the revelation of the Righteousness of Christ — which marks the beginning of the light of the angel whose glory shall fill the whole earth. We are on the verge of the greatest evangelistic opportunity in history! Are you prepared to give the reason for the hope you hold within you? Are you—is your church—Loud Cry ready?

INTRODUCTION TO TRAUMA AWARENESS

Katelyn Weakley
Cascade Room B/C –
Holden Convention Center

VOD Have you ever caught yourself thinking, "what is wrong with that person?" There's a fair chance that the answer has something to do with trauma. This workshop introduces the essential foundations of trauma awareness for lay leaders and church officers. In this first of two sessions, participants will explore what trauma is, how it impacts the brain, body, and behavior, and why understanding its prevalence and impact is necessary for ministering to God's people today. Drawing from clinical insights and biblical reflection, this session lays the groundwork for more compassionate, informed, and effective ministry. If you work with people within or outside of the church, this workshop is for you!

FORMED AND SENT:
THE NON-ANXIOUS LEADER
IN AN ANXIOUS WORLD

Andreas Beccai
Laurelwood Room A/B/C –
Holden Convention Center

VOD Anxiety doesn't stay with the person who originally feels it. It moves. It transfers. It reorganizes communities, families, and workplaces around managing the anxiety rather than pursuing the mission. This session draws on the Bowen Family Systems theory and the story of William Tyndale to explore what it looks like to be a genuinely grounded presence in systems that are anything but, and why that kind of leadership is less about personality than about formation.

ADVENTIST APOLOGETICS #1: GOSPEL RELIABILITY AND THE RESURRECTION OF JESUS

Brant Berglin
Cascade Room A –
Holden Convention Center

VOD The resurrection of Jesus is the hinge-point of history, and is therefore the most attacked Christian belief. How reliable are the gospel accounts generally, and for this singular event specifically? This workshop will highlight some recent scholarship and present resources that strengthen faith while providing answers for both skeptics and other Christians.

7:00PM - 9:00PM

THE WORD THAT HAS THE LAST WORD

Andreas Beccai
Gladstone Pavilion

LIVE "My Word will not return to me empty." Tyndale was martyred before he ever saw his translation reach the people he gave his life for. But the Word went out, and it did not return empty. This message traces the unstoppable journey of Scripture, from a condemned translator's cell to the hands of ordinary people everywhere.

Tonight's Offering

Broad Support of Mission – When you give to the Oregon Conference Evangelism Offering, you're doing more than funding events—you're fueling mission in places where resources are limited but passion for sharing Jesus is strong. Many churches across our Conference dream of hosting large-scale outreach efforts but simply don't have the means to do so. Your generosity helps bridge that gap, making it possible for every congregation—regardless of size or budget—to be part of a broader movement of discipling. Evangelism is not a stand-alone activity; it's a vital, practical step in the relational and intentional journey of making disciples. Thank you for investing in this mission, for empowering churches to reach their communities, and for helping us share the hope of Jesus across Oregon. Give during the offering this evening using the remittance envelopes in the Pavilion or online using the Adventist Giving app or at ora.d.us/ORGiving.

FORMED & SENT:
HOLDING YOUR IDENTITY
IN THE WORKPLACE

Cassandra Beccai
Mt Hood Auditorium –

The hours you keep, the compromises you make, the version of yourself you present in a performance review, all of it is shaping who you're becoming. This session is for young adults in the early years of their careers, navigating the tension between who they've been formed to be and the systems they've been sent into. Learn how your professional years can build you rather than quietly unmaking you.

THE TRAUMA-AWARE FAITH COMMUNITY

Katelyn Weakley
Cascade Room B/C –
Holden Convention Center

VOD What does it look like for a church to become a place of healing? In this second workshop, participants will move from understanding trauma to actively responding to it. Together we will explore practical strategies for creating trauma-informed faith communities, including how to foster safety, resilience, and meaningful relationships. Through discussion and reflection, participants will begin shaping ministries that promote healing, connection, and hope for a broken world.

ADVENTIST APOLOGETICS #2:
THE PROBLEM OF SUFFERING IN THE GREAT CONTROVERSY

Brant Berglin
Cascade Room A –
Holden Convention Center

VOD One of the most challenging accusations against the character of God is that He allows suffering to continue in our world, especially to the "innocent." Learn how the Great Controversy provides a vital framework for making sense of suffering, both in the current plan of redemption, and hope for pain-free eternity.

7:00PM - 9:00PM

THE WORD THAT OPENS EYES

Andreas Beccai
Gladstone Pavilion

LIVE When Jesus stood in the synagogue and read aloud, he was doing something radical: making the Word available to those who had been kept at a distance from it. This message connects Tyndale's vision of a literate, formed people to the Adventist calling in education, and to our own.

Tonight's Offering

Education Day – Research indicates that the vast majority of people who choose a life with Christ make that decision before the age of 18. This is why Adventist Education plays such a vital role in nurturing hearts for Jesus while preparing young minds for a life of purpose and service. Today's offering helps provide financial assistance, opening the door for more families to experience a Christ-centered education. Your generosity makes it possible to reach new students and plant seeds of faith that can grow for a lifetime and beyond. TONIGHT'S OFFERING

Broad Support of Mission – When you give to the Oregon Conference Evangelism Offering, you're doing more than funding events—you're fueling mission in places where resources are limited but passion for sharing Jesus is strong. Many churches across our Conference dream of hosting large-scale outreach efforts but simply don't have the means to do so. Your generosity helps bridge that gap, making it possible for every congregation—regardless of size or budget—to be part of a broader movement of disciplemaking. Evangelism is not a stand-alone activity; it's a vital, practical step in the relational and intentional journey of making disciples. Thank you for investing in this mission, for empowering churches to reach their communities, and for helping us share the hope of Jesus across Oregon. Give during the offering this evening using the remittance envelopes in the Pavilion or online using the Adventist Giving app or at orad.us/ORGiving.

Today's offering helps provide financial assistance, opening the door for more families to experience a Christ-centered education. Your generosity makes it possible to reach new students and plant seeds of faith that can grow for a lifetime and beyond. Together, we can invest in the next generation of leaders, believers, and disciples. TAD WORKU

The child of Ethiopian immigrants who made music a central part of his life from an early age, Tad Worku comes by his musical talents naturally. In 2012 he was poised for a successful career in the music industry, regularly headlining at Yoshi's in San Francisco and on the brink of signing a touring contract for his band. But that contract came with a catch – he would have to agree not to write about religion in his songs. So, Tad chose a different path, returning to school for a nursing degree and a life of service to the community. Tad's music defies genre categorization, incorporating elements of many different musical styles. His songs explore his personal journey to find meaning and purpose both in his musical career and his service to the community.

CAMP MEETING MEDIA TEAM

From time to time you may see our media team taking photos or videos around campus. These photos and videos may be used on our website, in print publications, or for video, live streaming, or for other purposes. If you'd prefer we not use photos or videos of you or your family just let us know. Speak with the photographer or videographer, or email us at info@oregonadventist.org.

LITERATURE & PHOTOGRAPHY

Please do not distribute literature, set up displays, or put up posters without approval. To have posters approved, bring your posters or flyers to the Conference office front desk by 5:00PM. (Be prepared to leave those items.) Items approved will be posted the following morning. Also, please note, photography or videography for public distribution must be approved by Conference administrative team.

LIVESTREAMING & SEMINAR RECORDING

If you can't join us in-person every day, or would like to share a bit of camp meeting, programs throughout the week will be livestreamed and/or recorded. Look for the  and  icons to know which seminars will be livestreamed, and which ones will be recorded to watch later.

The audiences in seminars marked with  and  may be recorded. By entering the meeting space and by your presence there and in the surrounding area, you consent to be photographed, filmed, and/or otherwise recorded and that your appearance, voice, and name may be used in any media for any purpose whatsoever in productions created by the Oregon Conference.

ESTATE PLANNING

The staff of the Planned Giving & Trust Services department are available to visit with you about creating a new estate plan or updating an existing one. Specifically: wills, trusts, charitable gift annuities, durable powers of attorney and advance directive documents. Stop by the Conference office or call us at 503-850-3570.

FOR SAFETY'S SAKE

CAMPGROUND SAFETY

Our safety officers patrol the campground 24-hours a day. Cooperating with them will ensure a pleasant experience for everyone.

FIRST AID

The First Aid Clinic is located at the west end of the Security Building. Basic first aid is provided by volunteer nurses, paramedics and EMTs. Clinic hours are Sunday, July 20 to Sabbath, July 26 from 7:00AM–11:00PM and Sunday, July 27 from 7:00AM–12:00PM. If the clinic is unoccupied during these hours, contact Dispatch next door. If First Aid is needed between the hours of 11:00PM and 7:00AM, contact Dispatch or call 503-850-3351.

CHILD SAFETY

The protection and safety of our children is a top priority. All our staff and volunteers are fully background checked. Please keep tabs on your children throughout the day. As an extra precaution, parents are encouraged to take a photo of their minor children after they are dressed each morning. If the child becomes separated or lost, that photo can be immediately sent out to the campground staff, making quickly locating the child much easier.

PROHIBITED

The following are prohibited on the grounds: firearms, fireworks, smoking, vaping, tobacco, cannabis, alcoholic beverages and illegal drugs. Also prohibited are bicycles, skateboards, rollerblades, and scooters.

ANIMALS & PETS

Animals and pets are not allowed on the grounds at this time. Assistance animals are always welcome. Comfort, therapy, and emotional support animals do not meet the criteria for assistance animals under the ADA (Americans with Disabilities Act) and are not permitted on the grounds. Locations has a handout with options for people who need to board their pet. Assistance animals must be registered with Locations and receive a tag that must be displayed whenever the assistance animal is on the grounds.

SAFETY INFORMATION

FOR SAFETY'S SAKE

COOKING

Due to fire risk, cooking must be done in designated cooking areas only. Propane and white gas stoves are allowed in cooking areas. Containers must stay upright and secure at all times. Please have a fire extinguisher on hand for any cooking.

PARKING

Please park in designated parking areas only. Display the parking permit with your name and contact information on the dashboard. If a vehicle is parked improperly, every attempt will be made to contact the owner before the vehicle is towed at the owner's expense.

All vehicles parked at an RV site must fit within the marked RV space and in such a way that the neighbors are not impeded or inconvenienced. Vehicles are not to be parked in the tent areas, except while loading or unloading belongings.

If you wish to park off-grounds, please park in such a way that does not inconvenience our neighbors. Do not block driveways or roadways, etc. Help us keep a positive relationship with our community!

WALKING

Please be aware that the ground here is uneven and may pose tripping hazards. Most hazards on paved walk-ways have been marked, however, if you locate a tripping hazard that is not marked, please inform campground staff so they can do so. If you need to cross Oatfield Road, please use the pedestrian crosswalks at 82nd Drive or Webster Road, rather than jaywalking.

QUIET HOURS

Please be respectful of others and observe quiet time from 11:00PM-6:00AM daily. All exit gates will be closed between the hours of 11:00PM and 6:00AM. The main gate will be the only way in and out during these hours. Main Street will be open to allow vehicles in the valley and main parking areas to enter or exit the grounds.

IN CASE OF EMERGENCY

EMERGENCIES

In case of a medical, fire, or police emergency, call 9-1-1, then immediately notify any camp staff or call Dispatch at 503-850-3351. This will ensure that first responders can be quickly directed to the proper location. Please clear a path for responding emergency vehicles and stay clear of the area until the incident has been resolved. We suggest you put the Dispatch number in your phone now so you will have it when needed.
