WELCOME BACK!

BY KRISSY BARBER

Welcome back to Gladstone Camp Meeting! We're so excited to have you back and we know you all are excited too. Here are a few things you should know about camp meeting this year.

There will be several ways to keep up on the latest camp meeting details, news, and announcements. This year, several pieces of information have changed since the camp meeting brochure/booklet went to press, so the most accurate information will be found in the new Gladstone Camp Meeting app, on the www.OregonAdventist.org/camp-meeting webpage, in each day's Gladstone Gazette, and on the evening news and information round-up - Gladstone Today.

It's been three years since we've all gathered here and preparations this year have definitely encountered challenges along the way. We've worked hard to overcome supply shortages, staff and volunteers coming down sick, vendors not having enough staff to get tents up in a timely manner, new leaders and staff members, and items being back ordered. All that is to say; please be patient, kind, and give some grace to the volunteers, staff, and other team members who are working super hard to make camp meeting a reality this year.

Some things will seem very familiar about this week at camp meeting and others will be a little different.

This year the children's divisions have worked to find a good solution to keeping your kids safe and happy through the week with a new check-in system. You can pre-register your kids using the Gladstone Camp Meeting app, or you can find the link on our camp meeting webpage listed above.

The Red Cross blood drive will be happening again on Thursday and Friday this week from 11:00 AM to 4:00 PM. Watch for the sign-up table in the Plaza.

The cafeteria and Snack Shack will be providing a variety of great options through the week. You can find the menus for both in the app and on the website.

This year's Gladstone Today show will start off each evening's program in the Plaza Pavilion at 6:45PM. It's a great way to catch up on what is happening throughout the week and even learn a few things you didn't know!

Speaking of things you need to know... this year there's a few community events that all ages are invited to participate in together.

This year's Friday morning Family Fun Run/Walk will be open to the entire Gladstone community and it will be a fundraiser for the Gladstone Senior Center. If you can't join as a runner or walker you can sponsor another person as a donor. All proceeds will go to senior center. If you'd like a event t-shirt they can be purchased for $7 at the InfoCenter.

In addition to the community service project on Thursday, you might have heard whisperings of a campus-wide corn roast this week. The rumors are true! There will be three places across campus on Friday from 3:00-6:00PM where you'll find fresh roasted corn and fresh watermelon to enjoy with family and friends.

Other things to note this week include:

- Adult Sabbath School in the Plaza Pavilion will begin at 9:30AM this year.

- The Sabbath meal prices listed in the camp meeting booklet are incorrect. Correct prices are: Breakfast $8.50, Lunch $10.00, Supper $10.00.

- COVID tests are available at First Aid, free of charge. If you are feeling sick, please be sure to wear a mask when you visit them.

We hope you have a wonderful week here on these special grounds! Welcome back!

BEING THE HANDS & FEET OF JESUS

BY KALEB EISELE

What if camp meeting became a relief to our neighbors rather than a burden?

It's no secret that camp meeting can be an overwhelming time for our Gladstone neighbors, when all of a sudden their tiny town is overrun by RVs, crowds of unfamiliar faces, and the occasional stray car parked where it shouldn't be.

This year starting at 1:00 PM on Thursday afternoon, we're going to do our best to provide relief to our Gladstone neighbors. We've teamed up with the City of Gladstone for several service projects ranging from 1-3 hours scrubbing graffiti, planting a new Christmas tree for the Gladstone Senior Center, providing lawn and garden cleanup, and more! All adults aged 18 and older are encouraged to volunteer, and minors may participate if accompanied by a parent or guardian.

In person sign-up begins Tuesday evening at 5:00 PM at the InfoCenter and will continue through Thursday morning. More information on individual service projects will be provided at signup, and while work gloves and equipment will be provided, volunteers are welcome to bring their own personal protective gear as well! All service project volunteers will gather on the Holden Center Plaza at 1:00 PM for project orientation.

Our long-term goal is to leave Gladstone better than we found it, and to facilitate healthier and more uplifting relationships between everyone who attends camp meeting and our neighbors—to be the hands and feet of Jesus in Gladstone and show what it really means when we say, "It's all about Jesus!" Let's come together and give back to the little town that has hosted us year after year!

CAMP MEETING APP LAUNCHED

One of the best ways to catch the latest camp meeting information this week will be through the new Gladstone Camp Meeting app! Users can even make a list of the seminars they want to attend and get reminders. Also to be found are links to on-demand video for seminars throughout the week and a quick link for registering your kids ahead of drop-off time for easy check in.
