WELCOME TO GLADSTONE!

W elcome to Gladstone Camp Meeting 2023! This year, our camp meeting will focus on being, "In Community." From our workshops and community service opportunities to social events like the Gladstone Family Fun Run/Walk, Gladstone Camp Meeting 2023 will invite each of us to embrace the profound truth that our faith journey was never meant to be walked alone.

While camp meeting will be loads of fun, it's important to remember to keep yourself, your friends, and your neighbors as safe as possible! With temperatures this week hovering between the high 80s to the low 90s, sunscreen and water should always be part of the plan as you go about your activities. Let's keep a watchful eye out especially for our kids and senior citizens!

During the year, the main roads that crisscross through Gladstone Park can be a beautiful place to drive. During camp meeting, however, many of the roads will be inaccessible to cars. Please respect all signs and closes areas and when you do drive, remember to move slowly! We hope every year that we will avoid any scary situations, but in case of a medical emergency, the first aid station is located by the main entrance just inside the fence from Oatfield Road. Take some time today to review the Gladstone Park campus map on the Gladstone Camp Meeting App, or on the back of the camp meeting guide booklet, so you are familiar with important locations like the first aid station in case an emergency arises! Please respect the directions of our security staff who have joined us this year once again to make sure everyone can stay safe and have the best camp meeting experience possible!

Every day of camp meeting is a new beginning, a new opportunity to reflect the love of God in what we say, how we act, and in the choices we make. We would love to hear your stories as they happen! If you are on Facebook or Instagram, be sure to tag @ oregonadventists or use the hashtag #gladstone2023 so we don't miss the amazing ways the Holy Spirit shows up at camp meeting this year! Happy camp meeting week!

MEET OUR SPEAKER: KARL HAFFNER

When he's not serving as the Vice President for Student Experience and Enrollment Management at Loma Linda University Health, Karl Haffner loves playing table games, marvels often at his ineptitude in golf, and can't go a day without trying to solve Wordle and Waffle. He is the author of a bunch of good books you can find at our Adventist Book Center; what's more, he has two bachelor's degrees, two master's degrees, and a doctorate. Best of all, he's the husband of Cherié, and father of Lindsey and Claire.

Recently, our writer Greg Brother got a chance to ask Karl a little bit about life, ministry, and ice cream.

Who has made the biggest impact on your ministry?

My dad, Clifford Haffner. He spent his entire career as an Adventist pastor - including pastorates in Vancouver, Wash. and Florence, Ore.

What is the best book you've read in the past year?

The best religious book? John Stott's Why I Am a Christian. Non-religious? Robert Kolker's Hidden Valley Road: Inside the Mind of an American Family.

Favorite book of the Bible? John.

Favorite flavor of ice cream?

Raspberry Chocolate Chip, from Graeter's Ice Cream in Ohio. (Fun fact: this is also Oprah's favorite.)

What do you hope we will do as a result of your sermons?

Live according to the biblical principles of healthy relationships.

YOUTH TO HAVE OPTION OF SCHOOL OF PRAISE DURING CAMP MEETING

Aspiring worship musicians, singers, and audio techs from grades 9-12 are all invited to be part of the camp meeting week School of Praise! This workshop is designated for teens who want to learn how to craft inspiring praise music and put their talents to use wherever they go as a platform musician or audio tech. Happening Wednesday through Friday, July 19-21 from 10:00 AM - 12:00 PM at the Gazebo across the street from Locations. Topics include selecting music, digital mixing, worship theme development, livestream audio, and more!

In addition to collective instruction, this year's hosts will also be providing one-onone mentoring, offering the opportunity to improve everyone's praise sessions! The workshops will be led by a talented team of mentors from three local churches--Ted Alekel, Jonathan Russell, and Zach Parks. Between them, this team specializes in a wide range of music - including live events and studio recording, leading worship teams, and much more!

Participants of this year's school of praise will perform together to open the afternoon concert in the Plaza Pavilion on Saturday, July 22 at 3:00 PM! All high schoolaged youth are invited to the School of Praise for an exceptional learning experience. You can find more information on the schedule and topics of discussions in the printed camp meeting guide on page 23, online through the main camp meeting page at www.OregonAdventist.org/campmeeting, or in the Gladstone Camp Meeting app!
