Guidelines for School Calendar Days

Principals – please use the following guidelines as you plan your school calendar for next year. When your calendar is completed and voted by your school board, please forward a copy to Karen at karen.heinrich@oregonadventist.org.

Guidelines for the 3 Instructional Days – minimum 170 (5-day school week) OR 138 (4-day week):

- Must meet the standards of a full school day or a minimum school day.
NPUC Education Code 2255:21 & 2260:21
- Minimum day is at least 3 ½ hours in length, excluding a lunch break.
- Direct student/teacher interaction must occur during this time for at least 3 ½ hours.
- Minimum school days (half days) shall be limited to 12 per year, with any days above 8 used for professional growth activities. For 4-day schools, the maximum shall be 6 half days.
- Attendance is required of all students. In order to count as a school day, more than half of the students must be in attendance for at least 3 ½ hours.
- THREE days must be included for teacher SBL planning on campus, to be spread throughout the school year.

Guidelines for Professional Growths Days – minimum of 5:

- Professional growth should be focused on standards-based teaching and learning.
- The 3 teacher SBL planning days and the 5 professional growth days are designated contract days, requiring 6 hours of on campus participation each day.
- Required safety trainings are not considered professional growth.
- Can include conference-wide PLC days (all 4 of which are now included as “no school” days in the calendar).

Inclement Weather Days:

- Schools shall add at least 2 inclement weather days into the school calendar, in addition to the 170 (or 138) days above. Schools that schedule 3 or more snow days will be hours-based for any additional days missed due to inclement weather or extenuating circumstances.

Please check the Oregon Conference website for inclement weather details.

As the employer for all contracted conference educators, the Oregon Conference Office of Education is responsible for setting the dates for all education-related calendar items.

All changes to the conference calendar, including changes to 10-month contract dates, must be approved by the local school board and cleared through EDCO before being announced to staff, parents, or students, and before any actions are taken relating to the requested date changes.

Please submit ANY CALENDAR ADJUSTMENTS to your superintendent to receive approval. Any calendars disseminated prior to receiving EDCO approval must be noted/marked as pending EDCO approval.

Principals should consult with the superintendent on subsequent changes made during the school year.
